

Root Canal

Post operative instruction

Endodontically treated teeth:

Presence of symptoms for a few days after obturation is common, an analgesic is enough.

If any discoloration, swelling, extreme pain occur after treatment is completed you should call the office.

Recall evaluation to assess the patient response to treatment is critically important.

Edit